Main Street Beaufort Invites Photographers, Creatives & Community Leaders to Free Photography Workshop

Beaufort, SC– Main Street Beaufort is excited to announce a free, hands-on photography workshop January 13, 2026.

This workshop aims to build a regional network of photographers to strengthen communications, marketing, and small-business storytelling year-round. Local photographers, students, creatives, and community leaders are encouraged to participate. No prior experience is needed -- mobile phones work perfectly.

Workshop Highlights

- Three simple tips to instantly improve your photos
- Example photography for social media, newsletters, and marketing materials
- Hands-on practice with professional feedback
- Real-world photography

City staff, Main Street teams, local photographers, students, nonprofits, chambers of commerce, and other community marketing partners. Multiple representatives per organization are welcome.

Strong visuals boost social media, newsletters, year-end reports, and marketing campaigns. Creating a local network of trained photographers ensures downtown stories are captured professionally, consistently, and sustainably.

Workshops are free, but space is limited. Community organizations are encouraged to send multiple representatives. Register here.
